

Summer Internship

Reports to

Various departments at Cushman & Wakefield LLP (C&W)

Staff responsibilities

During the six-week Summer Internship, you will attend workshops and gain knowledge and understanding from professional surveyors at C&W.

You will be placed within a team and you will work with both clients and team members on projects and day-to-day business issues.

Locations

Various

Key interfaces

Internal and external C&W teams and clients – dependent on placement.

Core function

You will have the opportunity to attend site visits, meetings, partake in research and gain valuable work experience to build up your professional development.

Operational responsibilities

- Ambitious individuals motivated by success
- Display business focus with knowledge of the industry and news
- A high level of drive, initiative and development potential

- An ability to anticipate, analyse and solve problems
- Good communication, interpersonal and presentation skills
- An ability to work as part of a team, establishing good working relationships.

Personal attributes

- No previous experience is necessary; however, a passion for real estate is essential
- GCSE grade 'C' in Maths & English
- Attained or predicted grade of 2:1 in your undergraduate degree
- Applications from all degree backgrounds are accepted
- Unconditional right to work in the UK.

Remuneration

Competitive

How to apply

Apply online at cushwakeearlycareers.com